TASTING NOTES

This 1990 vintage red wine is the result of a blend of 95% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Merlot. Traditional vinification of French style with aging in new barrels of 12 months.

Medium body wine, tile red color, delicate aroma, mouth complex with delicate flavors that give a pleasant aftertaste.

Ideal to pair with red meat, lamb, pigeon, foie gras, duck or bacon.

VINEYARD

Located within the Central Valley are the upper reaches of the Cachapoal Valley, one of Chile's historic win growing valleys. In this valley lies the town of Rengo that is protected by the mountain range that creates an area cooler and more arid than the rest of the valley.

The Torreón de Paredes vineyard built on alluvial soil, is situated in the heart of this and is flanked by the mighty Andes, which not only provides a stunning backdrop to our winery, but also creates the dramatic contrasts between day and night temperatures which result in richer, juicier grapes.
